Welcome to Team PFF!

Thank you for hosting an event to benefit the pulmonary fibrosis (PF) community! Team PFF Event Leaders are among the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation's (PFF) most dedicated volunteers, and your support is crucial to achieving our vision: a world without PF.

Team PFF Event Leaders host more than 100 events annually in cities nationwide. We aim to raise $225,000 in 2025 and know we can make it happen with your help! Your dedication will make a difference in the fight to find a cure. Funds from Team PFF events support research, advocacy, awareness, education, and essential programming for the PF community, including:

The PFF Care Center Network (CCN) offers patients access to experienced medical professionals who understand their disease and support services to improve the quality of their lives.. There are 81 CCN sites across the country. You can use the interactive map tool on our website to find a location near you.

The PFF Community Registry is a series of surveys for all community members affected by pulmonary fibrosis (PF) or interstitial lung disease (ILD). Your survey responses will be used for scientific analysis in attempts to better understand how PF and ILD progresses over time and responds to treatments and how the disease affects individuals.

The PFF Help Center is a trusted resource within the PF community and offers guidance for those affected by PF. The PFF Help Center staff are available to answer questions about the disease, treatments, insurance and assistance programs, the PFF Care Center Network, and support groups.

The PFF Support Group Leader Network provides a forum for pulmonary fibrosis support group leaders to interact, exchange ideas, and discuss best practices. Support groups offer a unique opportunity for patients, caregivers, and families to share their experiences with peers who understand what living with PF is like.

This guide was created to provide the guidance and resources you need to plan your Team PFF event. On behalf of the PFF and the PF community, thank you for your efforts. We look forward to working with you as you begin your Team PFF adventure and are here to support you!

We'd love to hear from you. For additional questions or resources, please contact Alyssa Athens, Development Coordinator, at 312.224.8112 or aathens@pulmonaryfibrosis.org.

We are in it together and fundraising together to help achieve the goal of a world without pulmonary fibrosis. Thank you for leading the way!

COMPLETE YOUR CAMPAIGN PLANNER

This guide will help you determine each step of your event planning and outline how to create a successful event. During your introductory call, your Team PFF staff contact will walk you through this step.

CUSTOMIZE YOUR ONLINE FUNDRAISING PAGE

Create a personal fundraising page to share your story, including your connection to pulmonary fibrosis and why you chose to get involved. Add a photo or video to bring your campaign to life!

ENJOY!

Have fun! Please remember how much we appreciate your support and know that you're making a difference for the patients and families affected by pulmonary fibrosis.

We are here to help. Contact Alyssa Athens, Development Coordinator, at 312.224.8112 or aathens@pulmonaryfibrosis.org if you have questions or need support with any of these steps!

Step 1: Create your fundraiser

The options are endless when it comes to hosting a Team PFF Event – if you can think of it, you can use it to help the pulmonary fibrosis community. From 5Ks to golf tournaments to bake sales and everything in between, a Team PFF campaign is a great way to share your passion and raise funds at the same time. Below are some event ideas to get you started:

5K walk/run

Gather your friends, family, neighbors, colleagues, and community for a walk or run event! You can make this a large-scale event and involve your community, or keep it more personal and do a small picnic. (If you're interested in this event, click here for the Community Walk Guide & Toolkit).

Golf outing

Golf tournaments are another popular event choice that can take many forms. Full tournaments take more planning and can include meals, drinks, sponsors, giveaways, and a raffle or silent auction. A scramble or a hole-in-one contest is a great place to start!

Online letter writing campaign

Start an online fundraising page and ask your friends and family to donate. You can ask for donations in place of gifts for birthdays, weddings, lung transplant anniversaries, Rare Disease Month, PF Awareness Month, and more.

Facebook fundraiser

Log into your Facebook account and create a Facebook Fundraiser with the PFF. Whether you are doing a general fundraiser or for a special occasion, this is a great and easy way to get involved. Harness the power of your social media network and use this simple, powerful tool to spread the word and manage your fundraising efforts. Click here to create a Facebook fundraiser.

And so much more...

Marathons/half marathons,
5Ks, triathlons

Pickleball
tournaments

Open mic,
karaoke party

Bake sale, garage sale, art sale

Food, beer, wine tasting

Bowling party

Step 2: Register and reach out to us

To register for your event online, complete this form. This will give us more information about what you're planning and help us provide you with the tools and resources you need to succeed!

Note: It's been shown that when others join your event, and you create a team, the teams outperform fundraisers, leading to more money being raised compared to standalone individual fundraising. We highly recommend creating a team, and if you are, make sure to include that in the description of your registration form.

We are here to support you every step of the way! Let us know what you're planning so we can connect you with our resources and support your efforts. Please contact Alyssa Athens, Development Coordinator, or Jake Meding, Director, Annual Fund, at:

Step 4: Create and customize your fundraising page

STEP 1: Click this link to go to our Team PFF website to get started.

STEP 2: Click on one of the two “Create Your Fundraising Page” buttons on the Team PFF page.

STEP 3: Enter the following information to register: your fundraising goal, personal information, and how you are connected to Pulmonary Fibrosis. You must also agree and accept the Team PFF Event Leader Agreement before clicking next.

STEP 4: You can add an optional gift to your page to kick-start your fundraising efforts. Then, finish your registration by clicking the “Complete Registration” button.

STEP 5: To activate your account, it will ask you to create a password and click “Activate Account.” Note that your username will be your email address.

The screenshot shows an account activation page. At the top, there is a green checkmark icon. Below it, there is a transaction ID: 'Transaction #23279971'. The main heading is 'You're registered for 2023 Team PFF!'. Below this, there is a dark button with a white exclamation mark icon and the text 'Activate Your Account'. Underneath, it says 'Just one more step, Alyssa!' and 'Create a password to access your fundraising dashboard and start fundraising.' There are three input fields: 'Email' (with a lock icon), 'Create Password' (with a red border and a red error message 'Create Password is required' below it), and 'Confirm Password'.

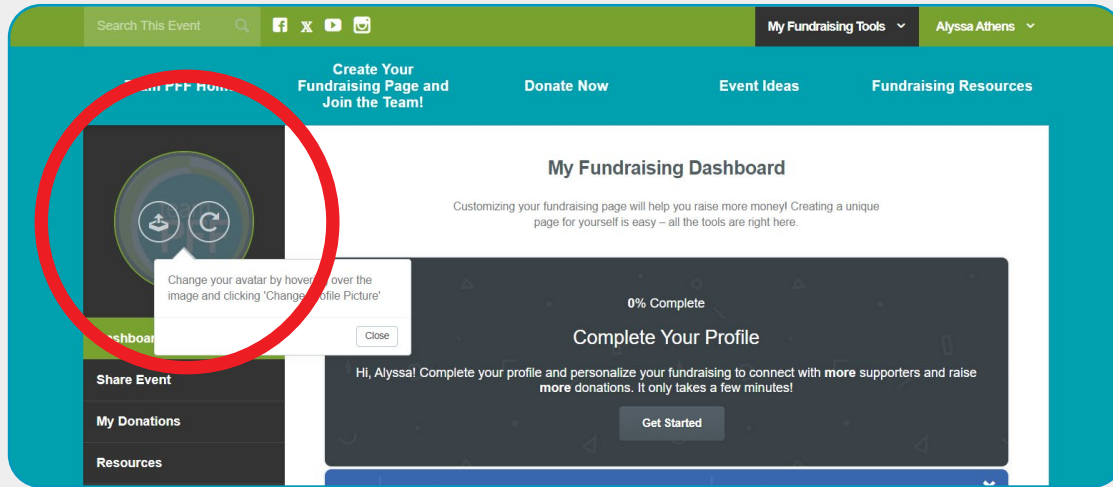

STEP 6: You are now registered! Click the “My Fundraising Dashboard” button to go to your page to start to personalize it. Note: you will also receive an online registration confirmation email. The online registration confirmation email includes three easy steps to kick off your fundraising campaign, fundraising tools/resource documents, username, and page link.

STEP 7: You are now on your page. A page creation checklist guide will appear at the bottom of your screen, which says “Complete Your Profile.” Follow these prompts to get your page fully set up and start raising funds for the PF community. The page creation checklist guide will walk you through steps 8-12. Click the “Get Started” button in the black box. STEP 8: It will first tell you to “change your avatar (the icon on your fundraising page) by hovering over the image and clicking ‘Change Profile Picture.’” You can upload a photo of yourself or a loved one or keep the Team PFF logo! Be sure to click save when you’re done.

STEP 9: Click continue under complete your profile: update your personal page. Edit your page to change how it looks! Note: look for the settings icons to edit widgets. Look for the eye icons to hide widgets that you don't want. If you change anything, press the update button at the bottom of each section you edit. After you're finished making changes, click the save page to continue.

- You can add a title at the top of the page where it says, “Welcome to my fundraising page.”

STEP 10: At the bottom of the page where your page creation checklist guide is, press the “send a fundraising email” to start your campaign. Use our template, or feel free to create your own, but email your friends and family to let them know you have started a fundraising page, why you are supporting the PFF, and how they can get involved. You can send the email immediately or schedule it for another time. Note: if you use the template, tags (ex. %EventName%) will be populated once the email is sent.

STEP 11: Then raise your first online donation by clicking the “Next Step: Raise Your First Online Donation.” After setting up your page and sending it out, you should see donations coming in! For this step, after you receive your first donation, the page marks this item complete for you.

STEP 12: Click “Share on Facebook/Twitter” on your page creation checklist guide to connect your Facebook and Twitter accounts and post to let everyone know you’re supporting the PFF! For both social media tabs, click the “Share My Personal Fundraising Page” to go to your account and make a post.

We Run for Ralph Garofalo & the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation - NYC 1/2 Marathon

Pulmonary, meaning "Lung" & Fibrosis, meaning "Scar", is a deadly and complex disease that causes progressive scarring in the lungs. Pulmonary fibrosis (PF) causes blockages in the tissue lining and disrupts the movement of oxygen from the lungs into the bloodstream. Low oxygen levels (and the stiff scar tissue itself) can cause people who have pulmonary fibrosis to feel short of breath, particularly when walking and exercising. PF affects over 200,000 Americans annually and 50,000 people will be diagnosed this year alone.

TIPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL TEAM PFF EVENT:

- Be creative and have fun! Your event should be unique to you and something you want to attend!
- Inspire others to get involved by sharing your story. Tell them why you are part of Team PFF, why you want to take charge and lead the way to a world without pulmonary fibrosis, and how they can help.
- Establish goals and set a budget. Determine how much you plan to raise and how you can reach that goal. Develop a plan to cover the costs associated with the event.
- Spread the word about your efforts and invite your network in as many different ways as possible: emails, texts, personal phone calls, social media, flyers/posters, and local newspaper/television station.
- Think about who you know. Find friends with a skill or connection to help you save money on your event. Do you know someone who is a photographer or caterer? They can help with your event pro bono (they get exposure and publicity) or at a reduced rate.
- Ask local businesses to sponsor your event or donate in-kind goods, services, or venues.
- Ask your employer to match your donation. Many employers offer matching programs. This is an easy way to get your company involved in your efforts and, in many cases, instantly double your donation and impact!
- Host an auction or raffle to raise additional funds and allow guests to leave with something tangible.
- Send personal thank yous to everyone involved with your event (donors, vendors, in-kind donors, etc.).
- Get help from us! Please register your event so we can provide you with appropriate support. Don't hesitate to contact Alyssa Athens or Jake Meding with any questions or concerns (pg. 6).

How to make an ask: Sponsors

Sponsorships are a great way to involve local businesses, offset costs, and bring in additional revenue through cash contributions and in-kind donations. In return for their donation, you can provide exposure for sponsors at your event by putting their logo on your t-shirt and signage or allowing them to provide promotional materials.

1. Create A List: Start by creating a list of potential businesses with whom you have a connection or those that sponsor other community events. Consider your friends and family's places of work, businesses that partner with other charities, or companies that meet your needs, such as grocery stores for water or restaurants for food. The opportunities are endless!
2. Write Your Sponsorship Letter: Update our Sample Sponsorship Letter (pg.32) and Sample Sponsorship Package (pg.33) with your event information.
3. Reach Out: If you have a direct connection, schedule an appointment to discuss your event. If you do not know anyone, ask the company that handles community donations or nonprofit partnerships. You can reach out to the marketing department, and they can help.
4. Time To Ask: Face-to-face asks are always the most powerful. It is a great time to share your story and why you are asking for their support. You can provide them with the written materials as you finish your visit. If they aren't able to meet in person, try a phone call or virtual meeting and then send materials via email with a short message of what their contribution would mean to your event. Pro-Tip: the personal touch will set you apart! Sending a handwritten note thanking them for their consideration will stand out.
5. Follow-Up: Businesses get busy, and people miss an email. Don't be discouraged. Feel free to call the business or follow up if you haven't heard from them.
6. Stay Positive: Even if a business can't financially support your event, see if they can attend and support you on the day of or help volunteer. Just because they can't help this year doesn't mean they can't help in the future!

How to make an ask: In-kind donations

In-kind donations are items needed to host a successful and fun event: water, food, rentals (tables, chairs, sound system), balloon arch, signs, and printing. They are THE best way to keep costs low and meet the needs of your event! To help you solicit in-kind donations:

- 1. Recruit A Committee: Extra hands are essential for securing in-kind donations. Ask your friends and family if they'd be willing to support your efforts and help in the solicitation process.
- 2. Start Early: Corporate donations usually take 6-8 weeks to process, and you'll need to reach out to businesses more than once to secure donations. Start early and ask often for the best results!
- 3. Develop A Wish List: Consider the items you'll need to run the event (space, food & beverage, rentals, entertainment, photographer, etc.) and begin to build your list of requests. Once you've developed that, you can strategize on the places to fill these needs. Consider where your friends and family work, businesses you support, and those organizations that give to other community events as places to start.
- 4. Prepare Your Materials: Personalize your request letter for each business whenever possible. You could do this as a mail merge if you created your request list in Excel. If you don't have the manager's name, you can address it to the donations manager, general manager, or human resources department.
- 5. Begin Locally & Then Expand To Corporate Headquarters: In most cases, your local community will be more supportive of your efforts, whereas corporate companies get thousands of requests a day. Ask where you shop, and let the prospective sponsor know how they will be recognized for their donation.
- 6. Keep Track: Create a list of all the donations you have asked for and log your progress so you can follow up appropriately. This will help you organize everything to secure as much support as possible!
- 7. Gratitude Pays Off: Be sure to thank all companies and individuals who donate to your event. Keep a spreadsheet of what benefits you promised and ensure you deliver social media mentions, logo placement, announcements on Walk day, and day-of event exposure. This will make next year even easier!

How to make an ask: General donations and fundraising

The key to asking for donations is to ensure your donors know they are supporting a cause that is important to you. Share your story and why you want people to give to the PFF. By adding this personal touch, you will engage people in our mission and provide an opportunity to donate. Whether you are a first-time fundraiser or a veteran of many campaigns, here are a few ideas for making the most of your fundraising!

- 1. Make A Donation To Yourself: Did you know that typically, walkers who start their fundraising with a self-donation raise double the amount of those who don't? Set an excellent example for your participants by contributing to your personal fundraising goal.
- 2. Fill Out the "Who Do You Know" Worksheet (pg. 25): This will help you identify who you can ask! Think outside your circle! What about the hairdresser you visit every three months, your family and friends who live out of state, or even your mailman — the list goes on!
- 3. Read The "5 Easy Steps to Raising $1,000" Handout (pg. 27-28): This will give you an action plan sample. Then, refer to the "Who Do You Know" worksheet to start creating your plan.
- 4. ASK ASK ASK: Did you know it can take being asked FIVE times before someone will contribute? Don't give up! Send your emails multiple times, post on social media, mail your fundraising letter, and make follow-up calls!
- 5. Inquire About Matching Gifts: Encourage your donors to reach out to their companies to see if they have a matching gift program. This is an easy way to double their donation! To use our tool to view companies that offer matching gifts, click here.
- 6. Start An Online Letter-Writing Campaign: Create a personal letter for prospective donors. Use our sample fundraising letter (pg. 31) as a reference. Make sure to put your personal touch on it and share why you are fundraising for the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation.

How to make your event: Logistics

This section will help you identify things you might need for your event. Many schools, places of worship, community buildings, and corporate office parks will host your event and provide everything needed. For ideas on recognizing them, read the Sponsorship section.

Your goal is to hold your event in a donated location that provides:

- Adequate parking
- Shelter
- Gathering place for Opening Ceremonies
- Restrooms
- Trash removal/dumpster
- Tables/chairs for registration
- Access to a safe route for walkers

Reference your budget (pg.26) when considering amenities and necessities. Accessible restrooms, trash cans, and water are all necessities. Offering your participants granola bars, bagels, protection from sun/rain, and promotional materials are all great additions to your event. Keep in mind that your needs depend on your site and what is/isn't available and or allowed. Here are some ideas for event considerations:

Food and beverage

- Water: Grocery stores are often willing to donate a few cases of water. Ask at the customer service desk for a donation form.
- Bagels: Most bagel shops donate leftovers at the end of the day. You can pick them up the day before your event.
- Fruit: Do you have a fruit market near you? Ask them to donate a case of oranges or bananas!

Tables, tents, and restrooms

- A few tables may be necessary for registration and food distribution, but additional tables can positively affect the event experience. Ask family and friends to borrow folding tables, pop-up tents, and folding chairs to keep costs low.
- Ensure accessibility to bathrooms at your walk site. Helpful reminder: ensure the restrooms will be unlocked the morning of your event before everyone arrives.

Signage

- Signs and banners are a great way to add a personal touch to your event and encourage walkers as they complete the course. Pro-tip: Hang signs above the table, not in front of the table. The signage is blocked as soon as someone stands in front of the table.

Incentives

- There are many ways to use incentives! Get creative and incorporate them into your event. You can use signs as a sponsor benefit or fundraising incentive for teams! Here are some ideas from the PFF Walk:
 - Sponsors or teams who donate/raise $2,500 are given a “thank you” sign. These signs could be placed along the route. Find a local printer to donate these signs to your event!
 - Sponsors and teams who raise $5,000 are given a table as a meeting/gathering location, and at $10,000 are provided with a pop-up tent. We use these levels for PFF Walks but encourage you to use levels that work best for your Community Walk!
- Other incentives may include “swag bags,” hats, or water bottles.

Recognize top fundraisers

Announce top fundraisers during Opening Ceremonies to acknowledge their hard work!

- T-shirts are a great incentive to encourage your participants to fundraise. At the PFF Walks, we have a $100 fundraising minimum to receive a t-shirt.
- Enter everyone who raises a certain amount in a drawing for a local gift card or donated item.
- Consider asking a local business to sponsor your t-shirt to cover your costs.
- Provide buttons, sashes, or other affordable donated items that recognize your top fundraisers.

Below are additional considerations to enhance the experience! Do you have friends who are face painters or balloon artists? Do you have a local sports team you want to incorporate into your Walk? Get creative to make this a fun-filled day!

Who do you know?

The key to having a successful fundraising campaign or event is to ask people you know for support. Think about everyone whose lives you touch and ask them to get involved by making a donation, offering services in-kind, or volunteering.

Use this chart to help you identify people you know and organize them into categories. Start with your inner circle of family and friends and then think beyond that to acquaintances, personal vendors, and others in the community who might be able to support your efforts. Before you know it, you will have a complete list of supporters!

Easy steps to raise $1,000

Getting started and raising your first $1,000 is easier than you think! By following these five simple steps, you can tremendously impact the PF community!

SHARE YOUR STORY

Most Team PFF leaders host their event because of a deeply rooted connection to PF. Effective fundraising campaigns share a story to gain support. Tie the two together to create a dynamic ask. Weave together a narrative that illustrates how PF has affected you and your family while requesting support from the reader. Include a picture or video to bring your campaign to life!

BRAINSTORM A LIST OF CONTACTS

Once you personalize your fundraising page, you're ready to request support. Family and friends are a great place to start but challenge yourself to push past the people closest to you and expand your reach. Ask your colleagues, neighbors, extended relatives, hairdressers, or any other local business.

ASK FOR SUPPORT

85% of donations made in America are due to personal relationships. Your network will support a cause near to your heart – all you have to do is ask! This step that seems the simplest is sometimes the most overlooked. Don't forget to ask for a donation. You can request a specific amount or include a blanket statement like "please make a donation today." Remember, you are not asking for yourself; you are asking on behalf of a cause that's important to you.

SEND, SEND, AND SEND AGAIN!

You'll need to send your personal fundraising letter more than once to remind donors of your campaign. It takes people an average of FIVE times to respond to something.

SAY THANK YOU

Thanking your donors is critical to a successful fundraising campaign. You could handwrite a card, post on social media, or make personal phone calls. Whatever method you use goes a long way to ensure your supporters know how much their gift means to you.

RAISING $1,000: ACTION PLAN

Now that you know the basic steps to raising your $1,000, it's time to create a concrete action plan like the sample below.

		Completed
Make your own $25 contribution	$25	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ask your boss to contribute $50	$50	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ask 5 co-workers for $10 each	$50	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ask 2 people at your place of worship for $25 each	$50	<input type="checkbox"/>

Ask 5 professionals (doctor, dentist, lawyer, etc.) for $25	$125	<input type="checkbox"/>
Host a fundraising event (bake sale, garage sale, car wash, etc.)	$200	<input type="checkbox"/>

TOTAL = $1,000

Social media 101

Social media is a great way to promote your event, recruit attendees, and offer your network the opportunity to support your campaign! Make the most out of these tools with quick tips and sample posts:

- Encourage people to like and share your posts to reach outside your network and into theirs.
- Include a link to your personal/event fundraising page. If you're asking for donations, make it easy for your friends and family to go to your fundraising page and donate by putting a link in your posts!
- Share your story! Don't forget to share your connection to PF and why being part of Team PFF is important to you.
- Use our hashtags to connect with the PFF and PF community: #BlueUp4PF, #PulmonaryFibrosis, #TeamPFF.
- Upload images. Posts with pictures are more engaging and are more likely to be seen.
- Thank your donors through social media. Write on their wall so their network can see it. Tie it all together with a picture, too!
- Spread awareness by including quick facts about PF in your posts to educate your network on the disease.

Volunteer recruitment

Volunteers can play a crucial part in helping your event run smoothly. Schools, places of worship, and corporate groups are great places to start when recruiting volunteers. To find out if your workplace offers a matching volunteer program, please click the link here. This will take you to the Double the Donation website, where you can search for your company's name. This resource can help fulfill your volunteer needs while contributing to your fundraising goal. You can also use a volunteer recruitment site (see below for ideas) to list your opportunities and reach a large audience of people looking to volunteer their time. If you have a sponsor for your event, they might also have employees who want to get involved.

Volunteers can help with set-up, registration, food distribution, clean-up, direct people along the walk route, and anything else you might need the day before and the day of the event.
